Greetings ZM Friends,

As I travel the hallways of our school system, I imagine a world where our youth know Jesus Christ and His love for them. Can this be possible in our world that is filled with voices, images and the teaching of atheistic philosophy? Every month I participate in meetings with our Legacy Club teams and see for myself the passion and love that these individuals have for God and each other. Here are some responses that I have received from them. Hello Zee, Club day today was AWESOME! Every portion of the program ministered to the students. I am certainly blessed to have you men supporting the work of the Lord on campus. I've learned so much from observing the love and support you've demonstrated towards me and the students.

V. Wilkerson Sponsor King HS. Hey Z, Thanks for what you do with the youth in our public schools...thanks for bringing Jesus back to the schools...you have blessed me in allowing me to be a part of this...thank you again, God bless you. T.Roque-Youth Pastor. We are so blessed at Zenon Ministries to have open doors to our schools and people who have a heart for our youth. Thank you!

At our Wiregrass Ranch HS Legacy meeting speaker Rebecca Biles and singer Carmen shared how their lives were transformed by Jesus and how these qualities play a part in our life with God. A challenge in obedience and trust.
