Greetings ZM friends,
Recently the great Christian teacher and philosopher Ravi Zacharias spoke to a large gathering in Brandon, Florida. He said that the greatest challenges facing Christians in the future will be "trust in our leaders and the teaching of our youth." I thought this is exactly what our ministry is focused on. We teach both from a Biblical point of view to our youth. One of the great worship singers, songwriter Dennis Jernigan came to Tampa to perform and he was invited to share in music and testimony his love for Jesus Christ. He came out of an alternative lifestyle to get married, have nine children and write over 400 worship songs over the past 25 years! At one of our meetings he asked the students who were troubled to stand and give their worries to the Lord. I was stunned as many stood silently weeping at this invitation and number of boys were sobbing loudly as they stood. The insecurities of life, parental breakups, the economy, materialism, abuse, youth relationships, availability of drugs and alcohol, violence and sexual immorality have compounded the struggles of our youth. Many are hurting and searching for answers and the truth. They want to believe and trust someone and that is where we fit in as we point them to our Lord Jesus Christ.

Fellowship: Wharton HS Legacy Club meet for their yearly yearbook photo.

Outreach: Zee spoke 7 times to more than 1400 students at The Great American Teach In at Gaither.

Discipleship: Students at Steinbrenner HS form small groups to share their thoughts and faith.

Service: Some of Gaither's leaders prepared peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for their football and girls basketball teams before practice.

Outreach: Wiregrass Ranch students sit with Dennis Jernigan before club meeting.
