

Greetings ZM Friends,

At this time of year youth ministry is at its peak. The excitement of school starting invigorates our students and club sponsors. What a great blessing to see our numbers increase and our leaders more mature in their faith.

Following is a list of requirements that makes Legacy successful.

- Prayer
- Team members getting to know each other
- Sponsors meetings regularly with student leaders
- Preparing an agenda for our outreaches
- Setting up weekly Bible Studies
- Selling T-shirts and memberships
- Promoting the club.

The planning has paid off. Our opening club meetings have been excellent with challenging messages from the students and speakers. Recently, while visiting a school during lunch I had an interesting conversation with one of the students. He told me he didn't need God. I told him God needed him and that He loved him. You could see by his countenance that this statement hit him right in the heart. He then said he would consider coming to our meetings. Priceless!

Our Legacy Club leaders pray at Wharton HS. prior to their first club meeting. This took place when a fire alarm forced the whole school out. Great time for prayer!
